

Are you, or do you know someone who is interested in training to become a secondary school teacher?

As a school we have linked up with several other secondary schools in the Southampton, Salisbury, Bournemouth and Poole area to form a consortium called 'SUPA', whose goal is to make the south a centre of excellence in the delivery of teacher training. This is really important to us because it means we can choose the very best talent and develop them into teachers. Being able to choose who we train as teachers helps us in delivering the best outcomes for students. We also accommodate PGCE students from the University of Southampton and Chichester who have an excellent reputation for training teachers in our area.

We have vacancies for some of our teacher training courses which are due to start in September 2017 and we would be very interested to hear from you if you are thinking of becoming a teacher, or know someone who is. We are looking for people who have (or will have) a degree, have a passion for teaching and want to inspire young people to fulfil their potential. More information about SUPA can be found on the Teacher training section of our school website.

To find out further information about the exciting teacher training opportunities available we would like to invite you to attend an informal evening on Thursday 18th May 2017 from 6 -7.30pm at Redbridge School where there will be teachers from other local schools including Hounslow, Redbridge, Romsey and Toynbee School. There will be an informal presentation followed by an opportunity to ask questions and chat with like-minded people.

If you are interested in attending the evening please email nicci.dossett@noadswood.hants.sch.uk or phone the school and leave a message.

Yours faithfully

Mrs N Dossett

Assistant Headteacher
