

As a Noadswood Student you:

- Will have an excellent attendance of 95% or above.
- Are punctual to school and to your lessons.
- Wear your school uniform with pride.
- Show an excellent attitude to learning and work to the best of your ability.
- Are kind, honest and polite; treating all members of our school and local community with respect and compassion.
- Are respectful to others, their possessions and the school environment.
- Participate to the best of your ability in school and house activities.
- Tell us if you are worried or concerned about something.
- Follow all of our school policies (such as IT use, and prohibited items)
- Do not use your mobile phone during the school day unless given permission by a member of staff.

As a parent/carer you:

- Adhere to and support the Noadswood school ethos and policies – working in partnership.
- Respect the roles and rights of all individuals within our school community.
- Avoid using social media forums (such as Facebook) to air any concerns or disagreements regarding Noadswood. Instead, you contact us directly and work alongside us to resolve these issues.
- Ensure regular and punctual attendance by your child.
- Try to avoid making appointments during term time.
- Ensure your child comes to school in the correct uniform and with the correct equipment and discuss with us should this be difficult.
- Encourage your child to complete their homework and, where possible, provide a space and time within the home environment for them to do so.
- Contact the school regarding any problems or issues as they arise and work in partnership with us to resolve them.
- Share your child's successes and achievements with us, both those in school and in external clubs and activities, so we too can celebrate with them.
- Reply to school communications via e-praise, email or by telephoning the school.
- Ensure your contact details and medical information are up to date and inform us promptly of any changes.
- Avoid contacting your child by mobile phone during the school day – please contact reception or you child's house leader should you need to communicate messages to your child.

Students and parents can expect that Noadswood will:

- Provide a happy, safe and caring environment for learning.
- Ensure that we look after and nurture your mental health and well-being.
- Provide excellent/effective? teaching across a wide range of subjects.
- Carefully monitor progress, supporting and using effective interventions.
- Support any additional needs you may have and take steps to ensure these needs are planned and catered for.
- Acknowledge your efforts, achievements and progress.
- Set appropriate homework.
- Provide up to date information about school events.
- Communicate in a timely and effective way with you about any concerns that may arise.
- Deal with challenges in a professional manner.
- Make appointments to meet with you to discuss any concerns you may have.
- Report to you, daily, on your child's attendance.
- Ensure that our dedicated team of safeguarding leads work collaboratively with our staff and local agencies to ensure that you are kept safe at school and within the home.